

A Series of Eye Talks

No. 70

The Oculist Sells Nothing But Service—

The physician who specializes in the treatment of the eye—the Oculist—has nothing to sell you but his skill and experience.

He has no reason in the world to order glasses for you unless you actually need glasses.

So when you suspect that your eyes need attention it is the part of wisdom to consult an Oculist.

And then—if glasses are ordered—take your prescription to an Optician of undoubted ability and skill.

Such an Optician is qualified not only to make your glasses exactly in accordance with your prescription but to insure the proper effect by the proper fitting.

Cl. D. Hulse
OPTICIAN

1429 H Street N. W.
Southern Building.
We do NOT examine eyes.
"This Talk" is a copyrighted series; all rights reserved.

MUSIC

Makes Christmas Happier
We Suggest Musical Christmas Gifts
Ukuleles, $3.50 up
Special prices on Banjos, Guitars, Violins, PIANOS

The Famous Hamilton, Monarch, Howard, and the Modello Player-Pianos

Reduction on Talking Machines
Special—Emerson 6-inch Records, 4 for 25c

Also a big line of Large Size COLUMBIA and EMERSON Records for Old and Young

J. M. SOKOLOV
1742 7th N. W.
North 5849-J

We must keep our army equipped and ready to enforce peace terms. Continue to lend Uncle Sam your money—buy W. & S. constantly.

42 GOVERNORS AT ANNAPOLIS MEET

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 17.—Governors attending the tenth annual session of the governors' conference here gathered again this morning for the second day of the conference, which is to be devoted to discussion of reconstruction policies.

Gov. R. I. Manning, of South Carolina, who was to have spoken yesterday, today delivered the address of response to the address of welcome delivered by Governor Harrington, of Maryland.

The reception at the executive mansion last night was a brilliant affair. All of the guests, many of whom were accompanied by their wives, were greeted by Governor and Mrs. Harrington.

Gov. Fred D. Gardner, of Missouri, president at the morning session, Gov. Martin G. Brumbaugh, of Pennsylvania; Gov. Emmet D. Doyle, of Nevada; and Gov.-elect Thomas E. Campbell, of Arizona, will speak today.

Tonight the governors, governors-elect, and lieutenant governors of every State in the Union except six will be the guests of the Press Club of Baltimore, where a special program will be given for their entertainment.

TO PUNISH DEALERS CHEATING IN EGGS

"Dealers who cheat by selling cold storage eggs as fresh eggs will be punished to the limit," declared Clarence B. Wilson, District food administrator, in a statement today.

Mr. Wilson declares that he has been criticized for commencing the present high price of eggs.

"Complaints have been received regarding the price of eggs, which, for example were quoted at 30 cents a dozen on November 27," said Mr. Wilson. "This price was based upon the actual cost of fresh eggs to the wholesale dealers, plus a fair margin of profit."

"The wholesalers, of course, have to buy their eggs from places outside the District. The cost to the wholesaler was determined by actual quotations made to him by large shippers of eggs outside the District. If our wholesalers did not pay these prices, they could buy no eggs and Washington would be without eggs."

Business associates had known for a number of years that he was active in his stenographic, but thought it was because she was considered an authority on real estate values in New York.

The bridegroom is a widower and has three daughters older than the new stepmother.

WEALTHY REALTY MAN, 70, WEDS STENOGRAPHER, 28

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Edward Asforth, seventy, wealthy president of the Asforth Realty Company, does not understand why anyone should have the slightest interest in his marriage to Miss Alice Carey, twenty-eight and pretty, his former stenographer.

Business associates had known for a number of years that he was active in his stenographic, but thought it was because she was considered an authority on real estate values in New York.

The bridegroom is a widower and has three daughters older than the new stepmother.

WEALTHY REALTY MAN, 70, WEDS STENOGRAPHER, 28

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Edward Asforth, seventy, wealthy president of the Asforth Realty Company, does not understand why anyone should have the slightest interest in his marriage to Miss Alice Carey, twenty-eight and pretty, his former stenographer.

Business associates had known for a number of years that he was active in his stenographic, but thought it was because she was considered an authority on real estate values in New York.

The bridegroom is a widower and has three daughters older than the new stepmother.

WEALTHY REALTY MAN, 70, WEDS STENOGRAPHER, 28

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Edward Asforth, seventy, wealthy president of the Asforth Realty Company, does not understand why anyone should have the slightest interest in his marriage to Miss Alice Carey, twenty-eight and pretty, his former stenographer.

Business associates had known for a number of years that he was active in his stenographic, but thought it was because she was considered an authority on real estate values in New York.

The bridegroom is a widower and has three daughters older than the new stepmother.

WEALTHY REALTY MAN, 70, WEDS STENOGRAPHER, 28

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Edward Asforth, seventy, wealthy president of the Asforth Realty Company, does not understand why anyone should have the slightest interest in his marriage to Miss Alice Carey, twenty-eight and pretty, his former stenographer.

Business associates had known for a number of years that he was active in his stenographic, but thought it was because she was considered an authority on real estate values in New York.

The bridegroom is a widower and has three daughters older than the new stepmother.

Attractions To Be Seen At The Playhouses This Week

NATIONAL.

Cassius, lean and hungry-looking conspirator in Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," truthfully remarked:

"The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars, but in ourselves, that we are underlings."

Very good sentiments, as Mr. Brinsford has been telling his readers through his editorial columns for the past thirty years. An excellent theme for a sermon, an editorial, or—as was discovered at the National last night—even a play. "Dear Brutus" gets both its name and its theme from the quotation. It gets its inspiration from "Midsummer Night's Dream," and if Mr. Frohman cared to, he might well call the play "As You Like It." It is a play that is suggestive of Shakespeare, and yet nothing like it.

In conception "Dear Brutus" is delightfully unusual and therefore extremely entertaining. It is refreshing because, although improbable, it is different, and people like novelty. Loh, a sort of Puck, a fellow who seems to be the reincarnated spirit of "Merry England," a crazy old man in tight-fitting breeches and cutaway coat who childishly makes love to flowers, implores the ladies to pamper him, and cries when he doesn't have his way—

Loh has a party on Midsummer's Eve. He relates to the guests a popular superstition of a strange wood that mysteriously appears and disappears. Those who enter it have what they most desire—a second chance. Yet no one who has entered it has ever been seen to leave it. Suddenly this wood appears, and the members of the party, disoriented creatures, one by one enter it to get a second chance.

The second act shows the wood, with all of the foolish creatures having their second wish, their heart's desire. Mr. Dearth, a hard-drinking artist whose ambition and self-respect have been crushed out by the death of his wife's love for him, now is a rejuvenated young painter spending a happy season with the daughter of his dreams. Mrs. Dearth, who loved some one else better than her husband, now is a forsaken outcast of society, haggard, ragged, searching for crumbs of bread. Mr. Purdie, professional philosopher, who in waking hours preferred Joanna to his wife, Mabel, is the same Mr. Purdie—only now he's making love to Mabel, complaining that Joanna doesn't appreciate his worth. Lady Caroline Lancy, haughty, aristocratic society woman, now is wed to Mabel, the butler, both extremely happy. Every one had his second chance—and what a sorry mess! Some improved, some retrograded, some remained the same old people, all depending on what really was in themselves—not on chance or fate.

In the third act they wake, realize what fools they have made of themselves, and agree that they won't need a second chance if they only make the best of their first chance. Like the first act, it is spirited, bright, entertaining, with rapid shifting from the sublime to the ridiculous. If the second act were as good, the play would be a remarkable one.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

William Gillette, with his artlessness that is the highest art, with his naturalness and simplicity that are the keystone of effectiveness; and Helen Hayes, pretty, capable, winsome Washington girl, with her redeeming personalities of this act, the former in the role of the artist, the latter in the role of his imaginary daughter.

R. F. KEITH'S.

It is almost a certainty that R. F. Keith's Theater ran out of signboard and space and other bulky objects all of the eight acts which round out a perfect bill this week would have been given the same publicity. A capacity audience greeted last night's initial performance. Every act pleased. The performers won instantaneous recognition in a widely diversified offering. There was not a slow second from the Red Cross pictures to the Pathe Weekly.

Lucille Cavanagh was accorded signal honors in a dance revue assisted by Wheeler Wadsworth, Mel Craig, and William B. Taylor. Little Miss Cavanagh is almost boyish in her peppy, insistent dancing. Her performance is fresh as always. She is ingratiating. Lucille, Ltd., has lately decorated her. Dave Stamper has furnished her with lyrics and music. The stage setting is well lighted.

Wheeler Wadsworth's singing is as smooth as his dancing, while Craig and Taylor furnish, with the assistance of the orchestra, the last word in jazz with saxophone and violin.

At that, Lucille Cavanagh takes all the honors, which she well merits. Clifton Crawford is getting to be a regular Washingtonian. His stories, songs, and impersonations are always entertaining. His audience here urge him to do more and more. Crawford's singing, dancing, and reciting always win him a favored place.

Al Loyell and Carleton Macey, in "Two Old Cronies," were well remembered, although their act is entirely new. The skit is productive of excellent results. It is a story of the old civil war soldier and sailor type.

Miss Claire Vincent and company, in a comedy called "No Trespassing," scored heavily. The denouement, while not new, is startling. Miss Vincent carries the sketch cleverly and is well supported.

Andrew Mack comes with new songs and newer stories. He is the same. Andrew Mack, which speaks volumes. Ethel Hopkins charms with her rich rendition in "Musical Moments," her rendition of "Old Songs," "Road to Mandalay" being especially appreciated.

James Findlay and Louis Christensen, as "The Gladiators," present an acrobatic act in which hand balancing is featured. The Gardner Trio might well be featured, as their dancing performance was smooth and tastefully presented.

No better bill has been shown at Keith's this season.

GAYETY.

"The Liberty Girls" and Jack Conway are presenting a burlesque show at the Gayety this week that contains about everything necessary to make it one of the best entertainments of the kind seen here this season. "Reilly and the Seminary Girls" is the title of the comedy that is refreshingly different from the slap-stick variety of many Irish comedians.

Statuesque Barry Melton has the leading female role, and several songs number were repeatedly enjoyed. Hilda Giles, a "peppy" sourette, is prominent throughout the performance, while Norma Jerome was effective in her number.

With Frank W. Martin, Larrie Clifford, in black face, James J. Collins, Tony Williams, Dick Morgan and Henry Kitz are other members of the company who have prominent parts.

The chorus is a lively aggregation of girls who know how to sing and dance.

Today's Market Hints

"Take your basket to market." "Just say, 'Don't wrap it, please.'"

"Paper saved is paper made." Prices to retailers and general market information furnished by Bureau of Markets, U. S. Department of Agriculture; fair prices to consumers by the District Food Administration.

ABUNDANT—Cabbage, kale, beets, carrots, onions, apples, turnips, squash, pumpkins, white potatoes, sweet potatoes, green beans, lima beans, peas, spinach, grapefruit, Florida oranges, lemons.

SCARCER—Sweet potatoes, lettuce, tomatoes, cranberries, grapes, California oranges, lemons.

VEGETABLES. Product, Grade, Retailer to Consumer, Today, or Today.

BEANS, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

CARROTS, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

LETTUCE, head, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

PUMPKINS, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

SPINACH, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

TURNIPS, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

APPLES, First Quality, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

GRAPES, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

LEMONS, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

ORANGES, bunch, 1 lb., 10-12c; 2 lb., 20-22c; 3 lb., 30-32c; 4 lb., 40-42c; 5 lb., 50-52c; 6 lb., 60-62c; 7 lb., 70-72c; 8 lb., 80-82c; 9 lb., 90-92c; 10 lb., 100-102c.

QUESTION SCOPE OF U.S. BOARD'S POWER

The right of the National War Labor Board to act as a conciliatory board of arbitration in industrial disputes unless such action is voluntarily requested by both the employer and employee involved is questioned in a brief filed with the board by counsel for certain Florida phosphate mining interests, it was announced today.

It is contended in the brief that the board was created by the President as a tribunal to act solely in a labor controversy when an employer and an employee, unable to agree between themselves, voluntarily desired to submit their differences to an outside agency for adjustment. The power of the board to compel either employer or employee to submit their differences to it is denied.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 17.—Crashing to earth from a height of nearly 100 feet, Carl B. Smith, an aviator in Uncle Sam's airmail service, was killed instantly at the aviation field of the Standard Aircraft Corporation here. This is the first mail flyer killed since the inauguration of the service.

Smith was making a test flight with a new De Havilland plane and was circling the field at the time of the accident. The exact cause of the accident has not yet been made known. Smith has had twelve years flying experience. He was at one time a professional exhibition flyer. He was born at Brockton, Mass., in 1888.

Buy War Savings Stamps today and provide for your future.

FIRST MAIL FLYER IS KILLED IN TEST

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 17.—Crashing to earth from a height of nearly 100 feet, Carl B. Smith, an aviator in Uncle Sam's airmail service, was killed instantly at the aviation field of the Standard Aircraft Corporation here. This is the first mail flyer killed since the inauguration of the service.

Smith was making a test flight with a new De Havilland plane and was circling the field at the time of the accident. The exact cause of the accident has not yet been made known. Smith has had twelve years flying experience. He was at one time a professional exhibition flyer. He was born at Brockton, Mass., in 1888.

Buy War Savings Stamps today and provide for your future.

Acid Stomach! Meals Don't Fit! Gases, Heartburn, Indigestion

Instantly! Stomach feels fine. The moment Pape's Diapepsin reaches the sick, upset, sour stomach all distress ends. You wonder what became of the indigestion, acidity, gases, flatulence, heartburn, sour risings, dyspepsia. Magic relief. No waiting! Eat without fear! Costs little—Any drug store.

UPSET? Pape's Diapepsin WILL PUT YOU ON YOUR FEET

WHITE IVORY PYRALIN

We have a large assortment in White Pyralin Ivory in all five stores—Nail Buffers, Cuticle Knives, Files, Button Hooks, Trays, Hair Receivers, Powder Boxes, Combs, Brushes, Mirrors and many other pieces that would be appreciated.

Nail Buffers.....	70c	Hair Brushes.....	$1.19, $1.39, $2.39, $3.99
Cuticle Knives.....	40c	Oval Mirrors.....	$2.99, $3.99
Files.....	35c	Hair Receivers.....	$1.19, $2.19
Shoe Horns.....	25c	Powder Boxes.....	$1.19, $2.49
Perfume Bottles.....	70c	Trays.....	70c, 90c, $1.20
Talc Boxholders.....	50c	Manicure Set, five pieces, packed in neat box.....	$1.99
Men's Combs.....	50c
Ladies' Combs.....	50c

Flashlights, complete, 59c 79c, $1.49.

PEOPLES DRUG STORES.

STORE NO. 1, 7th and K Sts. N. W. STORE NO. 2, 7th and E Sts. N. W. STORE NO. 3, 14th & U Sts. N. W. STORE NO. 4, 7th and M Sts. N. W. STORE NO. 5, 8th and H Sts. N. E.

Imported and Domestic Perfumes

Duchesse Lilac or Violet Vegetal.....	89c
Neitha Toilet Water, 4-oz. bottles, all odors.....	$1.00
Meritol La Perle Toilet Water, Southern Rose, Crab Apple Blossoms, Lilac or Violet, in fancy bottles.....	75c and $1
Meritol Extracts, all the popular floral odors, in neat boxes.....	29c 59c
Hudant's Toilet Water original bottle.....	$1.18
Houbigant's Ideal Extract, 2 oz.....	$0.85
Houbigant's Ideal Toilet Water original bottle.....	$6.49
R. & G. Toilet Water.....	$1.25 $1.98
Dier-Kiss Toilet Water.....	$1.69 $2.69
Dier-Kiss Vegetal, 3-oz.....	$1.19
Dier-Kiss Sets—containing Toilet Water, Face Powder and Talc.....	$3.19
Aubrey Sets—"Muguet" or "Roses d'Armour"—containing Toilet Water, Extract and Face Powder.....	$5.98
Dier-Kiss Extract, 1-oz.....	$1.69
Planned's Lilac or Violet Vegetal.....	89c
containing Extract, Sachet and Face Powder.....	$4.50
Aubrey Set.....	$2.98
Mavis Extract, small bottles, packed in neat boxes.....	50c
Mavis Extract in 3-oz. bath-lined box.....	$3.50
Mavis Extract, 1-oz. bottle in neat box.....	$1.25
Mavis Toilet Water.....	$1.75
Mavis sets, containing Extract, Toilet Water, Face Powder and Talc.....	$3.19
Face Powder and Talc.....	$1.50
in packages.....	$1.39
4711 Cologne, 3-oz.....	$1.39
M. & L. Florida Water.....	29c 69c
bottles in boxes.....	70c
and.....	$1.00
Cologne's Extracts—Santal, Sassafras, Rose, and Violet de Mai, packed in neat hinged boxes, with clasp.....	50c, 70c
and.....	$1.25
Cologne's Toilet Waters—floral odors, packed in boxes.....	35c
Cologne's Toilet Waters—special odors: Monna Violet or Eclair, in boxes.....	50c
Cologne's Toilet Waters—Eclair, Rose, and Violet, in boxes.....	$1.00
Cologne's Combined Combs, for men or women, an excellent gift for any one. Choice.....	55c
Cologne's "P. V. P." Combs, two bottles in a box.....	50c

Popular Face Creams

Baranoff's Complexion Cream, removes pimples and black heads.....	25c
D. & R. Cold Cream, tubes, 10c, 25c.....	42c
D. & R. Cold Cream, jars, 25c, 42c, 70c.....	$1.29
Sempre Glovine, a cream in cake form.....	48c
Pompeian Massage Cream.....	79c
Pompeian Day Cream.....	35c, 50c
Pompeian Night Cream.....	43c
Duchesse Almond and Cucumber Creams will heal rough skin, windburn and make the skin soft, 70c size.....	59c
Japanole Cold Cream, an excellent greasy night cream that cleans and preserves the skin, 15c, 25c.....	43c

Save Your Teeth

Katynos Tooth Paste.....	23c
Porkan's Tooth Paste.....	45c
Ideal Chlorate of Potash Tooth Paste; will prevent Riga's disease.....	